Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 6/13/2003 has been entered. The pending claims are 1,2,3-20, 24-33.

The rejections of the previous action have been mooted by applicant's amendment .

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 24 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 24 recites a limitation, 3% to 10% by weight of divalent salt, which is outside of the limitation of the divalent salt claimed in claim 1 upon which it depends. Accordingly the claim will be examined as if the lower limit is 5% by weight.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 1751

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 25-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by North., US 4,345,063.

Compositions containing 15 parts of a glyoxal containing finishing agent or 15 parts of a formaldehyde-amine containing product were combined with 4.5 parts of a magnesium chloride catalyst (catalyst 531) and applied to cotton. See Table I in col 4 of '063 and example 7 in col 5 of '898. The process is part of a domestic process (note AHL= automatic home launderings) . The registry abstract included with this action discloses that Catalyst 531 is a combination of citric acid, which is a polycarboxylate, and magnesium chloride. Accordingly the composition claims are anticipated. Regarding claims 25-27, the claim states that the fabric is contacted with a divalent metal salt or the composition of claim 1. Applicant will agree that the fabric is contacted with a divalent metal salt in a domestic process in a rinse operation.

Claims 1,2 ,13-20, 24-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by North, US 4,300,898.

North treats cotton and cotton blends with resins which are formaldehyde condensation products and also dihydroxyethylene urea derivatives. The compositions contain catalyst 531, which is a combination of citric acid, which is a polycarboxylate, and magnesium chloride. See example 7 in column 5, which also describes the process using a dihydroxyethylene urea derivative as including home laundering, which always includes a rinse step. In example 5, g is a comparison using a formaldehyde condensate resin. In Table I in col 5, example (g) discloses 10 parts of formaldehyde resin is used with 3 parts of zinc nitrate catalyst, which is 23% catalyst. The other examples use 10 parts ethylene urea resin to 2,3,4.5 or 6 parts catalyst 531, which is a mixture of magnesium chloride and citric acid at 60% solids. Accordingly the amount of divalent salt in all of the examples falls within the amount claimed.

Claims 25, 28-33 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Danner et al., US 5,873,911.

The disclosure in col 12 lines 31 et seq. states that magnesium chloride and zinc nitrate are employed in the amount of 2-80% by weight of the polymer (F), which is an epichlorhydrin derivative as disclosed in col 4 lines 60 et seq.

Claims 1,2,13-15,17,24,25,28, 30 and 33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Goldstein et al, US 3,049,446.

Example 5 in column 5 anticipates these claims by disclosing a composition containing 5%, that is, 15 parts of zinc nitrate in 300 total parts of solution combined with a dye fixing agent which is a condensate of urea, formaldehyde and glyoxal. Said composition is used to aftertreat a dyed rayon textile. The treatment is repeated using N<N-dimethylol cyclic ethylene urea. See col 5 lines 32-61.

Claim Objections

Claim 28 is objected to because of the following informalities: "sulphones" on line 2 should be "sulphone" and "epichlorhydrine" on line 3 should be "epichlorhydrin". Appropriate correction is required.
